

Transcription of M.R. James's unpublished description
Cambridge, University Library, MS Ff.2.26

Title	The Brut Chronicle
Secundo folio	3f. oon
Language	English
Material	vellum
Measurements	8 $\frac{3}{4}$ x 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ ins.
Collation	1 ⁸ (1a fragment) – 13 ⁸
Number of leaves	104
Columns	single
Lines to a page	33
Date	xv
Handwriting	neat
Binding	brown leather
Contents	Moore 611: This is Antony Hobsons' 22 ^b (xv-xvi): also 35

The Brut Chronicle of England
Begins imperfect þe þridde after r 1
Kingis whose lyues & actes ben in þis book þe which corteynith cc.xx. [chap i] tris wipoute þe þrotholog or prolog Rubric. The prolog of þis book declairth how þis land was called albion aftir þe eldist doughter of þe rial king Dioclisian of Surry etc
The verso begins imperfect were married into Here eendith þe prolog and bigyneþ how Brute was goten etc 3
In þe noble cite of greet Troye Ends in .c. ccxvi
how Edmunde of wodestoke was bihedid at wynchestre. ca^o. cc. xvi^o
... many grete miracles to many men & women that

?* Brie In EETS, o.s. 131 (1906)

There are many marginal scribbles