

Egypt's contentious media: challenges for preservation

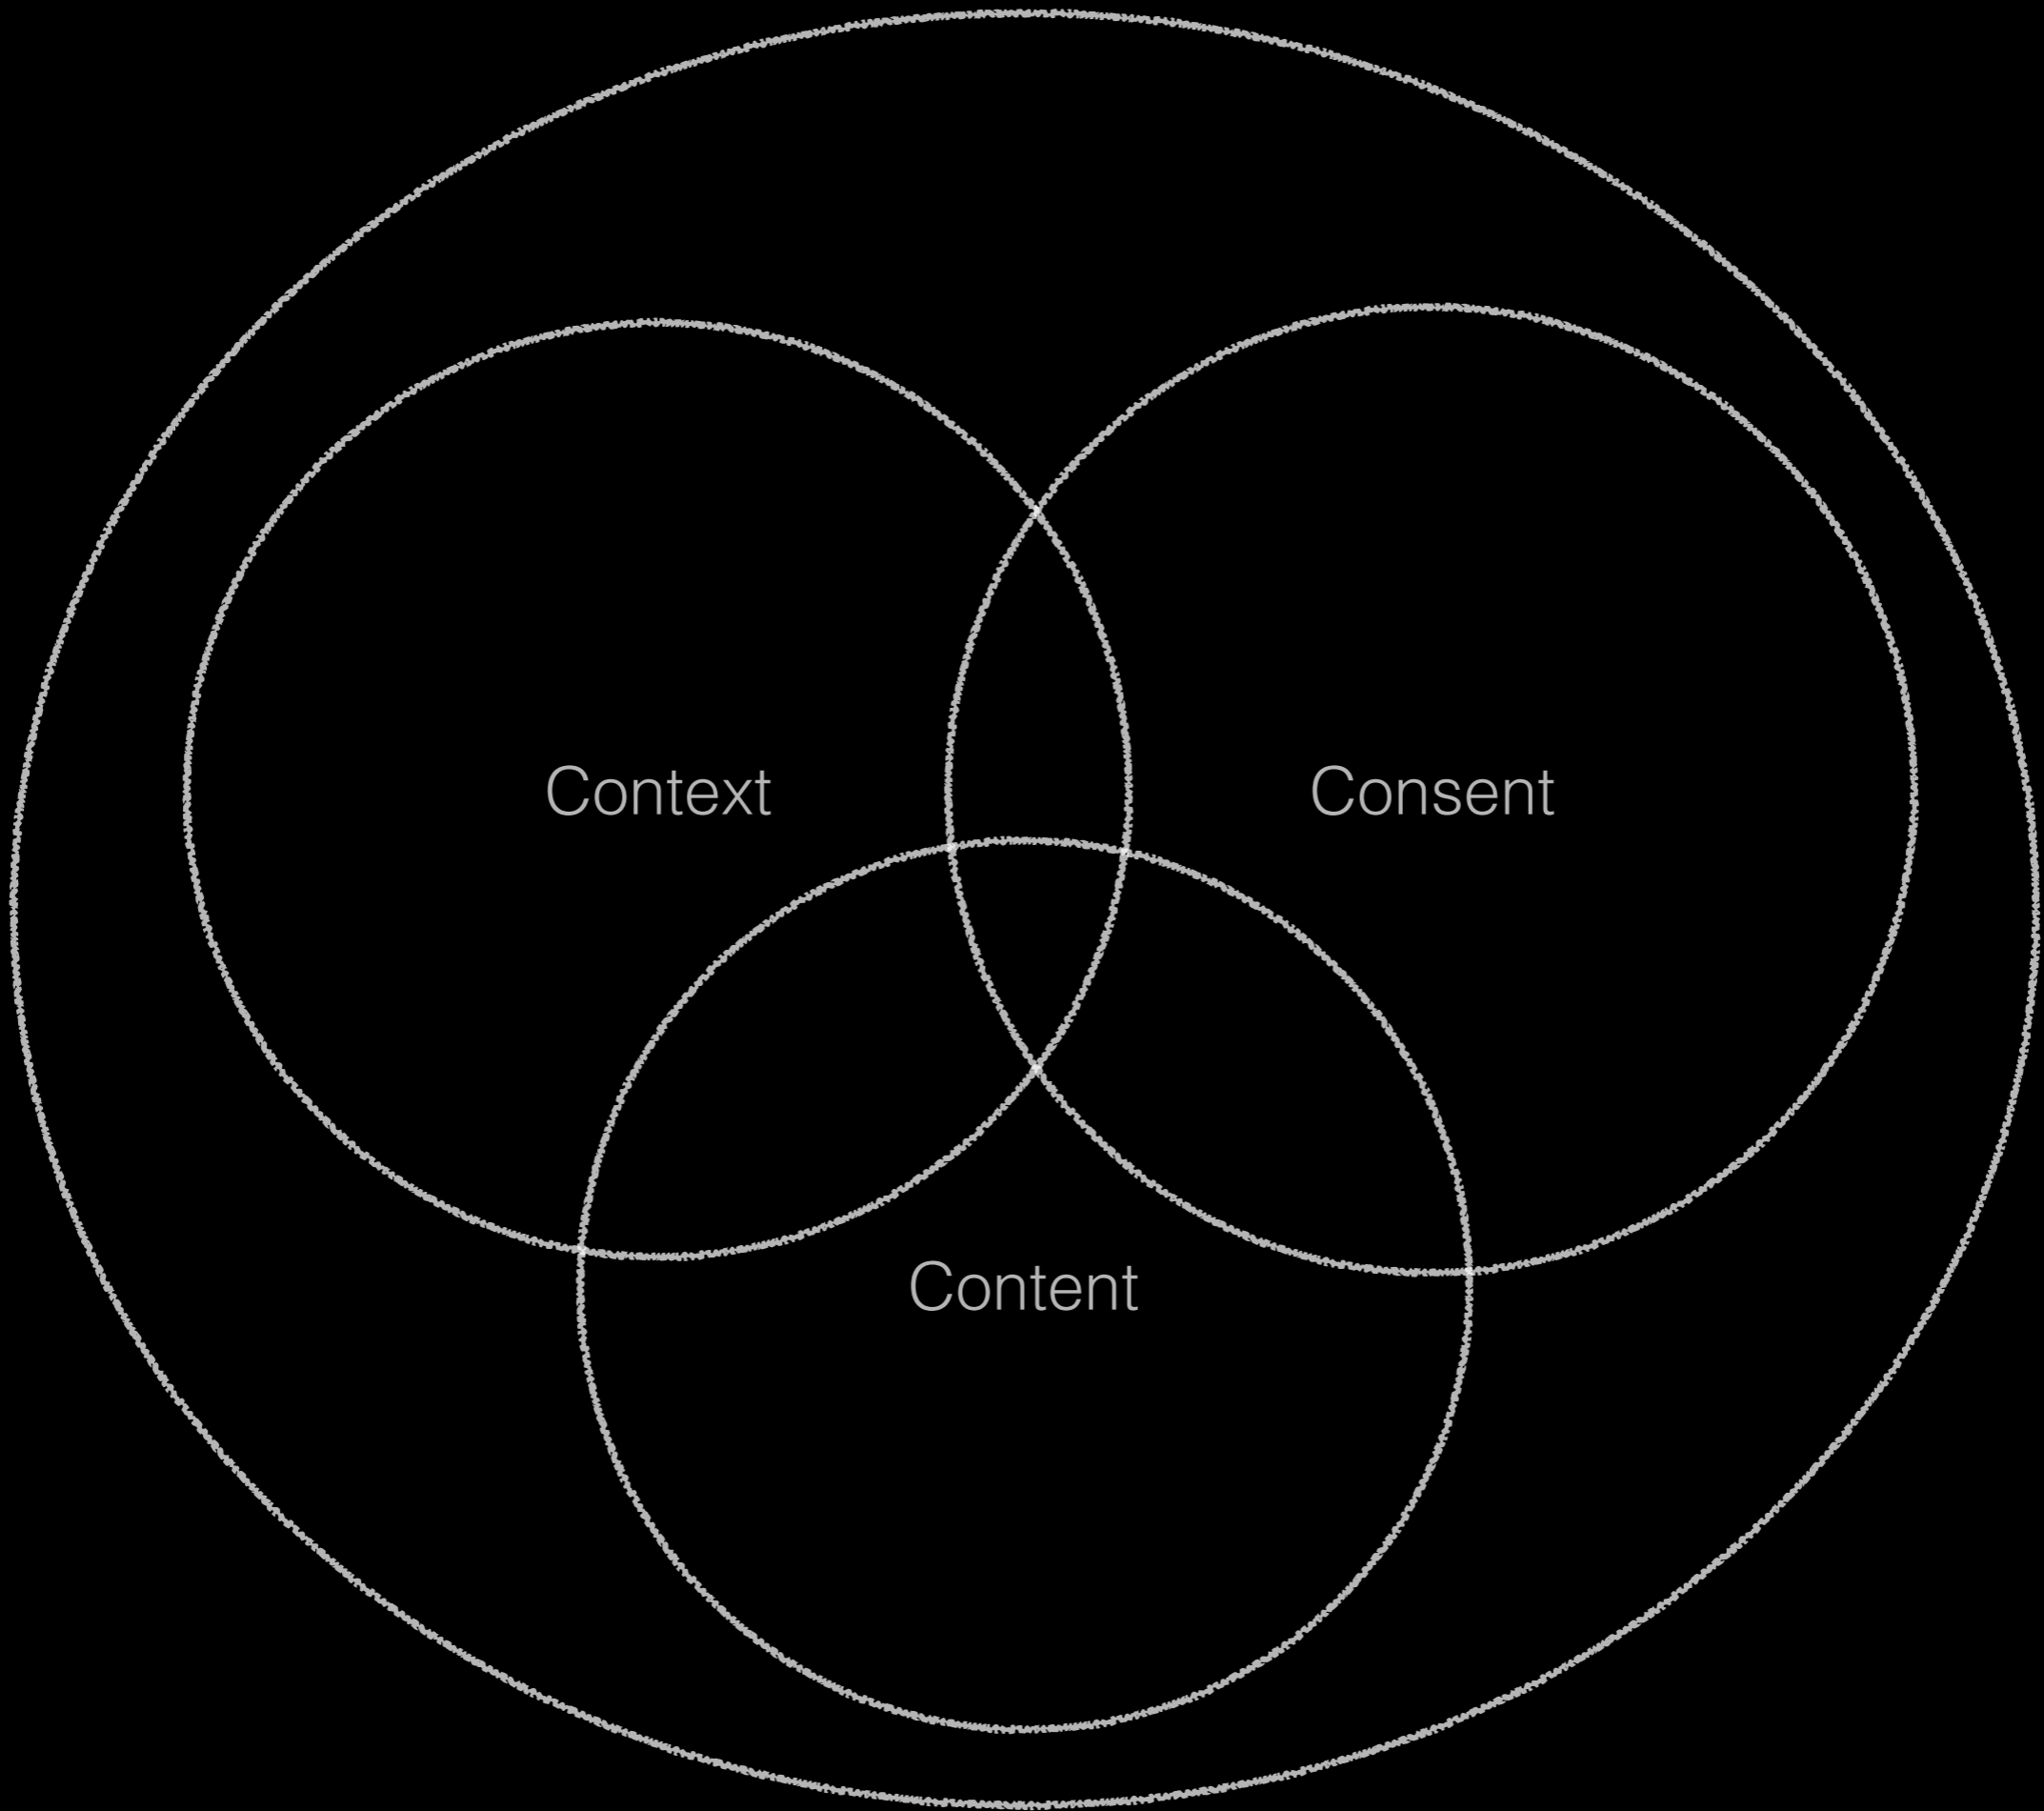

Anne Alexander - Cambridge Digital Humanities Network

Media

- Fragmentation of state monopoly under pressure from satellite / press / internet
- Rise in mobile telephony and Internet
- Media as tool and space in revolution and counter-revolution

Notes on a general framework

- Context
- Content
- Consent
- Conservation

Context

Consent

Content

Specific challenges?

- Rawness
- Shortcut to participant observation
- Language
- Voyeurism and surveillance
- Plasticity of social media forms

<https://www.facebook.com/Egyptian.Medical.Syndicate>

Whose media?

- Ownership?
- Control?
- Editorship?